

Ted Miller

Vice President of Finance

Ted Miller has been Vice President of Finance since June 2007. Ted is responsible for the organization and direction of all financial, business development, and strategic planning functions. He is a Fellow with the Healthcare Financial Management Association, and the American College Healthcare Executives, and serves on the VHA Central CFO Council. Ted is a graduate of Bentley University (1983), where he received a Bachelor of Science in economics and finance, and received his Masters of Business Administration from Nichols College (1992). Prior to working at Baptist Health Floyd he served as an executive with PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP, and held the position of Regional Chief Financial Officer for Mercy Healthcare Partners – Kentucky/Indiana, as well as several finance positions in Massachusetts at tertiary and teaching hospitals affiliated with Harvard University and the University of Massachusetts.

Ted and his wife, Meredith, have two children, Wyatt and Mia. They live in New Albany where they enjoy going out to eat and to the movies. The family also likes going to their cabin at Patoka Lake where they swim and spend time with friends. Ted enjoys golfing, working out, and reading biographies and business related books. The family attends Northside Christian Church.

